

SCHOOLS SUMMER FAIR

The aroma of barbeque smoke and a sunny day combined to bring people flocking to the summer fete held at Garden Suburb School on Saturday June 23rd.

The theme was Country Life, and one of the features was an exhibition of country dancing by the schools children, watched by doting parents sitting on hay bales. There were stalls and sideshows of every description, along with plenty of food and drink.

One of the organisers, Ruth Beedle, said that besides hoping to raise £2,000 for school audio-visual equipment, the objective was to "Bring all the community together to have fun". She paid tribute to fellow organisers Jim Ambrose, Maureen Adinolfi, David Morris, Ros Berg, Lesley Michaelides, Liz Wilson and Pat Over, and to everyone else who put in so much effort to make the fete a success.—Chris Stephen
