TOWN AND COUNTRY

Are you interested in the history and development of the Suburb? If so, read on ...

The Institute will, in the Spring Term, commencing on Monday, 12th January, 1987, offer, under the aegis of the London University Extension Courses programme, a course entitled "The Town in the Country", being a history of the origins and development of the Hampstead Garden Suburb. The course will be conducted by Dr. Michael Harris who specialises in the history of London. The course fee is £18.50. There are 20 places only (four of which have already been taken up). Applications for places can be made now at the Institute office.
