

DO YOU LIVE IN SHEEP HOUSE FIELD OR BLACK BOG?

This plan shows the pattern of fields and woods which covered almost all of the land now occupied by the Suburb. It was originally published in the Residents Association Year Book, 1968. Many familiar names figure; Wildwood, Willifield, Asmunds, but whatever happened to Black Bog, Dirt House and Gravelheart? CG

HAMPSTEAD WAY HOUSE GUTTED

Many residents have probably noticed that for some time 85 Hampstead Way has been shrouded in scaffolding and the site boarded up. The property has been gutted by the new owner, Mr Gross, who purchased it last summer. Besides completely renovating the house and installing a new roof, he was proposing to construct a large basement under the garden, but the plans were turned down by both Barnet and the Trust. The latest proposals submitted by Mr Gross are for a leisure complex behind the garage at the end of Wild Hatch, which also belongs to 85 Hampstead Way.

Previous owners of this house include Sir John Braithwaite, Chairman of the Stock Exchange, and Terry Maher, the founder of the Pentos Group. The plans for the leisure centre are available for inspection at the offices of the London Borough of Barnet and the Trust, and will be considered in October.
