On May 11 a large gathering of residents with Mary Mandelson, her sons Peter and Miles and Miles' wife Valerie heard speeches inaugurating the Tony Mandelson memorial hexagonal bench and tree on Willifield Green.

Roy Shutz and Gerry Mansell paid tribute to Tony and spoke of his passion for conservation and, above all, for the promotion of neighbourliness amongst Suburb residents.

Peter Mandelson said the family were pleased to see so many friends present and that it was a memorial his father would have appreciated especially as it is sited so near the Suburb school that both he and his brother had attended.
