Edward Botterill - Thrice Champion in Farm Walk Tournament

Farm Walk Tennis Club were again lucky with the weather for the finals of their annual Club Tournament on Sunday 23 June. It was a happy occasion and there was some exciting tennis and very close matches.

Edward Botterill was again Champion of the Day, winning both the mens' singles championship and the mens' and mixed doubles. He partnered his mother Sally in the mixed, and Claus Geissmar in the mens' doubles. This is the tenth time veteran Claus has won the mens' doubles and about the sixth he has won the mixed, but the singles has always eluded him. He and his family have been staunch supporters of the club for many years; his wife Elske captained the Ladies' First team for several years and now this mantle has fallen on her daughter Chris, to whom the club has also often had cause to be indebted for her excellent (and much appreciated) cooking skills!

In the Ladies' matches, the singles was won by Caroline Harris, also a past champion, and the doubles by Lorna Page and Mary Senechal for the second year running. This was an especially popular win as they have both done so much for the club, both on and off the courts, and have been the prime movers in the enormous improvement and popularity of the Junior section in recent years.

The Juniors are still continuing their summer coaching sessions with coach Sally Freeman, and, now that the club has been given a new purpose-built barbecue, they have enjoyed one barbecue and plan at least one other. There will be a special evening of tennis for Juniors and Parents followed by a barbecue supper on Sunday 1 September. Anyone interested in joining the club would be very welcome that evening - please ring Corinne Leverton (883 2589).

The Club still enjoys Rosalie Wesner's tea and cakes at Saturday afternoon club play and anyone interested in joining the club would be very welcome to come along then. Please ring Esmé Kingsley on 203 1731 if you would like further information.
