

FHA RAISES MONEY IN THE RAIN

In yet another demonstration of the unbeatable spirit of Suburb residents when they are determined that the weather won't spoil their fun, the Fete in aid of the Family Holiday Association was enjoyed under cover, by as large a crowd as ever.

Outside, the plant stall didn't mind the rain and the hot dogs sizzled even more. In the rather steamy friendly atmosphere of St Jude's church rooms there was the usual competition to find the best bargains, paint the best faces, choose the most sumptuous cakes and generally swell the coffers of the deserving FHA.
