This is the seventeenth season of Proms at St Jude's and once again we are supporting Toynbee Hall and the North London Hospice. This year, I need hardly remind you, all charities are affected by a dramatic change in the fund-raising climate, at a time when their need for funds has never been greater. Even so, as you can see from this leaflet, we have been fortunate in receiving some heartening expressions of support. It is now for you, our audience, to build on that support, especially by becoming Friends of the Proms. Did you know that last year the Friends Association helped to raise over a quarter of the money that we donated to our charities? I am sure you will find the wonderful programme of concerts, walks and other events, which the committee has worked so hard throughout the past year to bring together, both entertaining and inspiring. I hope you will encourage your friends and neighbours to join you in such a marvellous way of supporting our charities. And be a Friend yourself.

The Ukulele Orchestra of Great Britain

Supported by Lloyds Banking Group

A group of all-singing, all-strumming ukulele players, who use instruments bought with loose change, and who believe that all genres of music are available for reinterpretation, as long as they are played on the ukulele. A concert by the Ukulele Orchestra is a funny, virtuosic, twanging, singing, awesome, foot-stomping cornucopia of rock-n-roll and melodious light entertainment featuring only the 'bonsai guitar' and a menagerie of voices; no drums, no pianos, no backing
