WELCOME TO THE 18th SEASON OF

Box Office: 020 8458 8798 from Tuesday 1st June; thereafter 2pm - 6pm every day except Sunday. Now open for postal bookings – see Order Form

Welcome to the 18th season of Proms at St Jude's. Once again we offer you a varied programme of wonderful concerts, ranging from a piano recital by our patron John Lill to a jazz evening with Clare Teal; from a performance of French choral music by the choir of Clare College, Cambridge to film music by the BBC Elstree Concert Band (and don't forget the walks through the Suburb and beyond).

Thanks to the support of our sponsors and, not least, of all those who came to last year's concerts, we managed to weather the recession and were able to donate a total of £40,000 to Toynbee Hall and the North London Hospice. We now look to you, members of this season's audience, to continue to support us by becoming, or renewing your subscription as a Friend of the Proms. This will give you the privilege of priority booking to our ever over-subscribed concerts.

Proms Heritage Walks

See Booking Form

Both these walks start from the Suburb Gallery at Fellowship House, 136a Willfield Way NW11 6YD at 10.30am and end at St Jude's in time for the free lunchtime recital.

Saturday 19th June – God is in the details – David Davidson, the Trust's Architectural Adviser, seeks out the Suburb's delightful details which make all the difference.

Wed 23rd June – Shared and Secret Places – Jane Blackburn, the Trust Manager, looks at some of the lesser known green spaces on the Suburb, including communal gardens, meadows and allotments.

Guided Walks and Visits

Sunday 20th June at 10.30am – The East End meets the Suburb – Take a step back in time to explore Whitechapel and find out what moved Henrietta Barnett to found Hampstead Garden Suburb. Enjoy a short tour of Toynbee Hall, founded by the Barnetts 125 years ago, a walk through Brick Lane and the alleyways of Spitalfields. It's a fascinating tale of sweatshops and synagogues, markets and mosques. You might even spot Gilbert and George or Tracey Emin. Led by Julia Male, Blue Badge Guide. Meet at Toynbee Hall 28 Commercial St E1 6LS. Nearest Underground station Aldgate East.

Friday 25th June at 10am – Dame Henrietta's Neighbours – This walk starts in Golders Hill Park, and visits Lord Leverhulme's fine garden and pergola terrace, Wyldes Farm and the Heath Extension, ending at the Free Church in time for the lunchtime organ recital. Meet at the entrance to the café in Golders Hill Park for departure at 10am. Led by staff of the City of London Hampstead Heath Superintendent.
