

All change at the Suburb Gallery

May sees an exhibition of work by Shirley King highly decorative collages, oils and watercolours of her two passions, flowers in her Suburb garden and the beach scene in Spain where she enjoys the intense light. She spends her time between her studios in London and Spain, the Mediterranean providing her with all the colour and inspiration she needs.

In June a show of the celebrated ceramics produced in her Brookland Rise studio by Sheila Seepersaud Jones who has been described as 'a ceramic sculptor'. There will be large and small pieces as well as her jugs, bowls, teapots even which are functional but can also be read in two dimensions as abstract paintings.

New London Children's Choir

Boys and girls between 7 and 18 are invited to join and sing with this friendly new choir. "Musical training, exciting performance opportunities and lots of fun," says administrator Ruth Wheal. Rehearsals are at Highgate Primary school in Storey Road. 8202 8213 or 01708 741959 or log on at www.newlondonchildrenschoir.org.uk

Wordsearch winner

Synagogue dedicates new building

At the North Western Reform Synagogue's Simchat weekend Mayor and Mayoress Cllr Melvyn Cohen and Cllr Maureen Braun, the deputy Israeli ambassador and guests from the HGS Free Church, the Alyth Gardens congregation during the rebuilding, came together for a service of dedication of the two million pound project. It was the culmination of a weekend of activities involving the whole congregation.

During the service of dedication Rabbi Charles Emanuel said, "today we welcome those of the community around us and hope this will be a House of God for all people."
