One of their concerts will be in St Jude's on October 30 at 5pm when the Latvian group will be joined by Anete's local students (below). They would appreciate our support. Anete says "Please come and I promise: you won't be disappointed" Adults £5 children £2. For more information call Anete on 8458 5542 or 07931 902923.

St Jude's Autumn Fair brought out the bargain hunters, provided a day of entertainment for the Suburb and raised a record amount for charity. (Below, left) Iris Elkington, St Jude's fundraiser extraordinaire, takes the bric a brac in hand.

In support of the Breast Cancer Campaign, and to celebrate Beige's new shop at Temple Fortune, the Mayor of Barnet, Cllr Wendy Prentice cut a huge pink ribbon at the opening party in August. As a way of saying thank you to everyone who has been so supportive over the last two years, the Directors of Beige, Leanda and Jonathan donated £10 from every receipt written from 16 August to end of September.

More RA Notice Boards

The RA has received some more Notice Boards for location on the Suburb. The Boards have proved useful in publicising Suburb events to Suburb residents for both the RA and other local associations. We would like to give priority to those areas where there are few if any Notice Boards. In particular if you are living in one of the following areas, do call: near the East Finchley underground; Addison Way; Middleway; middle or North end of Meadway; Southern parts of Wildwood Road and Hampstead Way; Corringham Road; Kingsley Way; Spencer/Neville Drive; Holne Chase; Norrice/Linden Lea.

Of course, people living elsewhere are also welcome to contact us. So, to get a Board or to find out about what having one entails, do please contact David Littaur (8731 6755) or myself (8455 6537). Thanks.
