

David Littaur who chaired the RA's celebrations committee

The Lord Mayor of London, John Stuttard, followed in the footsteps of his predecessors in 1907 and 1957 in visiting the first two Suburb houses where he presented Henrietta Barnett roses to Rosalie and Bernard Leach and Naimb and David White who now live in 140 and 142 Hampstead Way.

Eddie Caplin who chairs the Trust/RA centenary committee

Lunch with the Lord Mayor and Mayor of Barnet in Golders Hill Park where the City of London laid on a lavish Celebration in the Park in honour of our centenary

Chris Kellerman led 18 walkers for eight and a half miles, over four hours, from St Jude's in the Suburb to Toynbee Hall in the East End close to the site of the original St Jude's on 30 September.

Georgina Malcolm who has been keeping a centenary book of signatures adds the Lord Mayor's

The Lord Mayor accepts a copy of Mervyn Miller's new book on the Suburb while Cllr Jasmin Nagbar looks on Furnishing the Arts and Crafts Suburb, an exhibition of furniture of the period put on by the specialists in arts and crafts furniture the Milinery Works Gallery attracted some 1,500 visitors many of whom bought pieces to go into Suburb homes. Seen here, delighted with their finds are Jennifer Dixon, her children and partner who are welcome new residents to Corringham Road

PRESENTED UNDER THE AUSPICES OF

Proms at St Jude's

TENEBRAE

A candlelit programme of music for Advent, Christmas and Chanukah, including Britten's Ceremony of Carols performed by the much acclaimed vocal ensemble returning by popular demand with BBC Symphony Orchestra Principal Harpist Sioned Williams

Sunday, 2nd December 2007 at 8.00pm

ST JUDE-ON-THE-HILL, CENTRAL SQUARE, HAMPSTEAD GARDEN SUBURB NW11 7AH

www.promsatstjudes.org.uk

Supporting Toynbee Hall and North London Hospice

Ticket Prices
 £30 front two rows upholstered & reserved
 £20 nave, wooden seats, unreserved • £10 side, wooden seats, unreserved
 Please note: If seats for which you apply are sold out, we will allocate the best available tickets

Box Office
 Postal booking now open
 Telephone booking from 12 November only: 020 8458 1582 (2-6pm Mon - Sat)
 General enquiries: 020 8455 8687 www.promsatstjudes.org.uk

TICKET ORDER FORM

We encourage you to order by post rather than by telephone and enjoy priority booking. Please complete this form, enclosing a stamped addressed envelope if you wish to have the tickets sent to you (otherwise they will be held for you at the door on the night) and send it to: Box Office, Proms at St Jude's, 10 Middleton Road, London NW11 7NS. We regret we cannot accept card payments for this event.

NAME _____
 ADDRESS _____
 POSTCODE _____
 TELEPHONE _____
 EMAIL _____

Please send me _____ tickets at £ _____ per ticket; total payment £ _____
 I enclose a SAE (see above) and cheque for the above amount

Nancy Boulicault, in Little Wood, registers young riders in the round the Suburb centenary quiz ride

The Youth Music Centre Centenary concert packed St Judes

On the surface all was calm on the croquet lawn during the Fellowship Centenary Fair

Centenary Sports Day

There were cricket, bowls, tennis as well as a bouncy castle on Lyttelton Playing Fields as the synagogue staged its Centenary Sports Day