

The Autumn show proved just how good Suburb gardeners are despite months of drought and weeks of heavy rain. Lots of entries from young members who were obviously delighted with their successes. (Photography Nigel Sutton)

Every year Chris and Lorna Page's spectacular garden is open to residents and supporters of the North London Hospice. They come to buy plants largely cultivated by Dr Page, preserves from Lorna's kitchen and tombola tickets from Andrew and Sally Botterill. A lovely social occasion and a very effective fund raiser for our local hospice. Top left, Cllr John Marshall and Rosie Daniels raise a glass while Chris Page sells the plants.

Glad to see Suburb News readers among the Last Night of the Proms revellers. (Photography Cesar Rodriguez Duran)

It has taken an age but the return of the lamp over the Henrietta Barnett memorial was a welcome sight this summer.

celebrating
20 years of successfully selling & renting in hampstead garden suburb

The Flower Festival in the Free Church in July led to an open air service in sunshine on the Square. (Photography Nigel Sutton)

Suburb News is published by the Hampstead Garden Suburb Residents Association
 Publisher and photographer: Richard Wakefield: richardwakefield@btinternet.com
 Editor: Terry Brooks: publications@hgs.org.uk
 What's On Editor David Littaur: Email to dvdlttr@googlemail.com
 Views expressed in Suburb News are not necessarily those of the publishers.
 Deadline for the Winter issue is mid December for publication late January.
 RA web site www.hgs.org.uk

020 8458 5000 | sales@litchfields.com | litchfields.com

47 market place, hampstead garden suburb, london, nw11 6jt