

New Year's Eve 2010

December 31 1999 saw the first of the Residents Association fireworks and party for New Year's Eve in St Jude's and on Central Square to welcome in a new millennium.

Fireworks become more sophisticated and health and safety regulations a nightmare, so this year's was professionally organised by Dave Brown and the letting off of fireworks is no longer left to amateur volunteers. The general consensus seemed to be that again it was the best year ever.

Happy new year everyone from your Residents Association.
