

CESAR RODRIGUEZ DURAN

Time for fireworks and Auld Lang Syne on Central Square

A modern take on the old old story

A large audience took their places in St Jude's on Christmas Eve for the traditional nativity play. But they found that this year there was a new look. Written and produced by Andrew Miller and Peter Ayers this version, performed by all ages from the Sunday School, was brought up-to-date with TV reporters interviewing biblical characters. Tinsel, feathers and tea towel keffiyehs were still there but jeans were the order of the day for the 21st century visitors.

CHRISTINA SADLER

Suburb fame. Michael Kiwanuka, right, who won the BBC Voice of 2012 in January, was a student in 2005 of Cesar Rodriguez Duran's guitar and jazz ensemble class at the Youth Music Centre in Bigwood House

CHRISTINA SADLER

CHRISTINA SADLER

22 years of successfully selling & renting in hampstead garden suburb

Christmas Tree Gifts

The Christmas Tree Gift Service took place in the Free Church Hall on 11 December and the children and young people acted in a play. 'The King is Coming'. The play started with the Youth Club planning a celebration as the King was coming to the Suburb. The younger children then acted out the traditional nativity story. Then the children lit candles on the Christmas Tree and sang 'Away in a Manger' by candlelight.

An offering of £275 was collected for the Islington Family Action 'Young Carers' Service to use for activities like Ice Skating and Cinema trips for the young carers.

JENNY STONHOLD

John Wheeler hands over a £15000 cheque for the Hospice from Proms at St Jude's

PUBLISHER:
Richard J Wakefield, suburbnews@btinternet.com

EDITOR:
Terry Brooks, rapublications@hgs.org.uk

WHATS ON EDITOR:
David Littaur, dvdlttr@googlemail.com

Views expressed in Suburb News are not necessarily those of the publishers the Hampstead Garden Suburb Residents Association. Deadline for the Spring issue is March 23 for publication in April

The RA website is www.hgs.org.uk