

WHAT'S ON

Generously sponsored by Godfrey & Barr, Hampstead Garden Suburb's leading estate agent

TUESDAY 1 MAY

Bridge and Games Season The North West Support Group invites you to host a bridge or games evening for your friends, providing light refreshments, in aid of the Hospice. Suggested donations would be £15-£20 per head and collectively this would amount to a valuable contribution to Hospice funds (over £1,000 last year). Details from Sue and John Gordon (8365 2459) gordonsus@aol.com

Lawn Bowls Lawn Bowling season starts Saturday 14th April and continues until end September. New members would be very welcome at Temple Fortune Club, Bridge Lane. 020 8455 4372

FRIDAY 4 MAY

11am Henrietta Barnett School Centenary Service of Thanksgiving and Celebration St Paul's Cathedral

2.30pm Recorded Classical Music Afternoons Fellowship House. Every Friday. Relaxing sessions classics on disc, followed by tea

SATURDAY 5 MAY

10.30am Traidcraft Sale and Coffee Morning at The Free Church

SUNDAY 6 MAY

10.30am-4.30pm daily Garden Suburb Gallery Flowers for Spring. A selling exhibition. Shirley Talerman shows her original botanical watercolours

7.30pm Burgh House Myths and Legends 7 for 7.30pm Venue: Burgh House, New End Square NW3. Vocal Recital by students of Middlesex University. Operatic gems by Handel, Donizetti and Rossini. Entrance free to Middlesex students/staff, others £8. Info: mark@markoldfield.net

7.30pm Mill Hill Music Club presents the Israel Piano Trio with Rivka Golani – viola at Henrietta Barnett School Hall. Beethoven – Piano Trio in G Op 1 No 2, Stutschewsky – Youth Trio, Brahms – Piano Quartet in G minor Op 25. Tickets £15 (accredited full-time students free). To book 8959 3866

MONDAY 7 MAY

2.30pm Burgh House Bank Holiday Afternoon Concert Venue: Burgh House, New End Square NW3. With their usual flair, the Aspidistra Drawing Room Orchestra blows off the cobwebs from music hidden in piano stools far too long! Tickets £9.50/£7.50. To book and info www.aspidistra.org 7633 9313

THURSDAY 10 MAY

7.30pm Avenue House Quiz Night at Avenue House Come and pit your wits against our question master over a glass or two from the cash bar. Fish and chip supper included. (Vegetarian option available with prior notice.) Price: £12.50 per person. Please book in advance. Tickets available from Avenue House reception in person, by phone 8346 9812, or via info@friendsofavenuehouse.org

8pm Garden Suburb Theatre Life x 3 The Bull Theatre, High Street, Barnet. Yasmina Reza's brilliant and comic exploration of the violation of human relationships between two couples. Refreshments. Admission £12 (conc £10). To book 7723 6609. Also Saturday matinee on 12 May at 3pm

SATURDAY 12 MAY

10.30am-12pm Horticultural Society Plant Sale Fellowship House. Plant Sale of annuals, perennials and summer bedding plants at very reasonable prices. Also vegetable and herb seedlings. Entry free

10.30am-12pm Abbeyfield Open House Coffee Morning Abbeyfield House, Homesfield, Erskine Hill. A splendid opportunity to meet residents, staff and volunteers. Refreshments

2pm Residents Association Michael Rowley Memorial Lecture at The Friends Meeting House. Professor Jane Ridley, great granddaughter of Suburb architect Edwin Lutyens, will speak about Lutyens' Life, Wife and Work. Tea and cakes. Donation suggested £5

THURSDAY 17 MAY

2.30pm Thursday Fellowship Free Church Rooms. Social afternoon with slide show

SATURDAY 19 MAY

7.30pm Choir Concert at The Free Church

SUNDAY 20 MAY

From 10am Fellowship House Personologist David Gavriel for information call Irene Stein 07831 641 199

2.30-5.30pm Yellow Book Gardens on the Suburb Gardens open for the National Gardens Scheme: 5 Hill Close (entry £3.00, children free, teas) and 91 Willifield Way (entry £3.00, children free, plants for sale, teas).

7:30pm Quiz Evening at Free Church Hall. The North West Support Group are the hosts at this ever-popular event, in aid of the North London Hospice. Details and tickets from Jennie Dunn at 8455 0636 jenniedunn@aol.com

THURSDAY 24 MAY

7.45pm Wearing the Colours Jewellery and the Women's Suffrage Movement in Britain at Fellowship House. Dr Elizabeth Goring, distinguished scholar and formerly a Principal Curator at the National Museums of Scotland, will present this remarkable story. In aid of the North London Hospice. Tickets £6 (concessions £5) from Yvonne Baker 8455 8687, ybaker@yvonnehb.plus.com; Sally Lewis 8458 3663, or at the door

10am St Jude's Church Eucharist at St. Jude's Church

FRIDAY 25 MAY

1pm Music Recital The Free Church. Lunch in support of Christian Aid served from 12.15pm

MONDAY 28 MAY

6-7pm Borough Councillors' Surgery Fellowship House. Ask for advice on local problems

SATURDAY 2 JUNE

10.30am Traidcraft Sale and Coffee Morning The Free Church

SUNDAY 3 JUNE

2-6pm Yellow Book Gardens on the Suburb Gardens open for the National Gardens Scheme: 48 Erskine Hill (entry £3.00, children free) and 94 Oakwood Road (entry £3.00, children free). Plants for sale

WEDNESDAY 6 JUNE

7-8pm Horticultural Society Entry night for Summer Flower Show at Fellowship House. Please note that entry night will be held on Wednesday 6 June, not Tuesday 5 June as previously announced, because of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee Celebrations. Your chance to enter for the 273rd Horticultural Society Flower Show to be held on Saturday. Bring your entry forms along. Children enter free, adults just 20p for each of the classes you enter. 020 8455 8741

SATURDAY 9 JUNE

3-5.30pm Horticultural Society Summer Flower Show Free Church Hall. The show may be opened and the children's event may be judged by our President Jonathan Ross (to be confirmed).

3.30pm Horticultural Society Children's Fancy Dress Competition And Parade & Adults' Mad Hats Competition Free Church Hall. To enter contact hgs@hortsoc.co.uk, 020 8455 8741 by 7 June.

7pm Evening of Piano and Guitar The Free Church. Husband and wife musicians Rajko & Andriana Radovic will present an evening of piano and guitar, moving between Classical and Modern on both instruments. Wine and refreshments will be served in the interval.

SUNDAY 10 JUNE

Henrietta Barnett School Visit to Henrietta's grave in Hove

MONDAY 11 JUNE

Institute Summer Learning Programme at Institute Arts Centre, Beaumont Close, Bishops Avenue N2. An exciting extended programme of summer short courses across the subject spectrum: Art & Creative, Cookery, Fashion & Textiles, Languages, Media & Performing Arts – and much more. To book 0845 871 4141. Info: www.hgsi.ac.uk; anne.melbourne@hgsi.ac.uk

THURSDAY 14 JUNE

Horticultural Society Coach Trip to Gardeners' World Live at the NEC, Birmingham Price: £37.50 for coach and entry. Booking form on website or phone 8455 0455/8455 7334.

SUNDAY 17 JUNE

Henrietta Barnett School Founder's Day Service St Jude's Church. The Service will be followed by the laying of flowers at the Henrietta Barnett Memorial on Central Square

THURSDAY 21 JUNE

2.30pm Thursday Fellowship Free Church Rooms. Mireille Hayden leads talk and discussion on 'Loss & Bereavement: Poetry & Myths'

SATURDAY 23 JUNE

Proms at St Jude's at St. Jude's Church. Annual series of lunchtime and evening concerts in aid of the Hospice and Toynbee Hall. Daily to July 3. www.promsatstjudes.org.uk

10.30am-4.30pm Garden Suburb Gallery Exhibition of paintings by Beth Zanders until June 30

SUNDAY 24 JUNE

2-6pm Yellow Book Gardens on the Suburb Gardens open for the National Gardens Scheme: 4 Asmunds Hill (entry £3, children free, plants for sale). (Also open 5 Hillcrest Avenue - entry £2.50, children free, teas)

MONDAY 25 JUNE

6-7pm Borough Councillors' Surgery at Fellowship House. Ask for advice on local problems

WEDNESDAY 27 JUNE

Henrietta Barnett School Private Tour, Talk & Tea at Queen Mary's Garden, Regents Park A visit to the HB rose bed

FRIDAY 29 JUNE

12.45pm Proms Organ Recital The Free Church. Michael Heighway, organ scholar at Christ Church, Oxford. Light lunch served from midday

SUNDAY JULY 1

A number of Suburb gardens will be open for Mayor of Barnet's charitable appeal for Barnet Carers and Barnet Hospital. The Rover ticket giving admission to ALL the gardens will cost £6. Children will be free. No dogs will be admitted. Tickets will be available from Cllr John Marshall 0208 202 1509

Funday Lyttelton Playing Fields The new playground will be officially opened and there will be a DJ and taster sessions for Kids Yoga, Indian Dance, African and Samba Drumming, Storytelling, Balloon Modelling, Juggling, Arts and Crafts and a host of other fun activities.

THURSDAY 5 JULY

7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet by William Shakespeare Venue: The Little Oak Wood, Addison Way NW11. Shakespeare's famous tragedy showing his genius ability to explore the extremes of human emotion and the futility of attempting to master them. Refreshments. Admission £9 (conc £7). To book 7723 6609. Also Sunday matinee on 8 July at 3pm

FRIDAY 6 JULY

7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

SATURDAY 7 JULY

10.30am Traidcraft Sale and Coffee Morning at The Free Church. 7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

SUNDAY 8 JULY

Horticultural Society Summer Garden Tour to Suffolk and Norfolk a three-day excursion to well-known and private gardens. Coach trip to visit several of Norfolk and Suffolk's finest gardens, including the Old Vicarage at East Ruston, Pensthorpe and Helmingham Hall. 4* Hotel accommodation near Norwich for two nights. Priority for HortSoc members and guests. Leaves from Temple Fortune. Info and booking: 020 8455 0455/020 8455 7334

3pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

THURSDAY 12 JULY

7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

THURSDAY 13 JULY

7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

SATURDAY 14 JULY

Celebrating Cultural Diversity in the Suburb The Free Church. See front page.

7.30pm Horticultural Society Summer Party and Ceilidh Free Church Hall. Come and dance the night away at a fun evening. Ticket price £22.50pp includes delicious hot supper and a drink. Ticket order to Events Secretary, 87 Willifield Way, NW11 6YH with cheque payable to HGS Horticultural Society (inc. phone number and address with your order)

7.30pm Garden Suburb Theatre Hamlet Details as 5 July

SUNDAY 15 JULY

12.30pm Suburb Weekend: A Celebration of Cultural Diversity in the Suburb in The Free Church. See front page

12.30-4.30pm RA Picnic on Central Square See front page.

2-6pm Yellow Book Gardens on the Suburb Gardens open for the National Gardens Scheme: 5 Heathgate (entry £3, children free, plants for sale), 51 Northway (entry £3, children free, plants for sale), 5 Wildwood Rise (entry £4, children free, teas)

TUESDAY 17 JULY

Horticultural Society Suburb in Bloom 2012 Best Garden Competition Are you proud of your garden? Then enter it into the Horticultural Society's Suburb in Bloom Competition. The winner will be presented with the Millennium Cup and a £25 plant voucher. Second and third prizewinners receive vouchers of £15 and £10. Entry form on website or phone 020 8458 2690. Entrants must be HortSoc members. To be judged on 17 July

THURSDAY 19 JULY

2.30pm Thursday Fellowship AGM and Summer Party Free Church Rooms.

SUNDAY 22 JULY

2-6pm Yellow Book Gardens on the Suburb Garden open for the National Gardens Scheme: 86 Willifield Way (entry £3, children free, teas)

MONDAY 23 JULY

6-7pm Borough Councillors' Surgery at Fellowship House. Ask for advice on local problems

FRIDAY 27 JULY

1pm Music Recital at The Free Church. Lunch supporting Christian Aid served from 12.15am

GODFREY & BARR
ESTATE AGENTS
www.godfreyandbarr.com
enquire@godfreyandbarr.com